A STEPPING STONES GRIEF PROGRAM

Equine Therapy

The licensed professionals of OhioHealth Community Grief are excited to partner with PBJ Connections this summer to offer an equine therapy grief workshop. Registration is required!

Week-Long Workshop

PBJ Connections will have trained staff facilitate the week-long series using The Eagala Model* alongside our licensed grief professionals. This unique partnership will give participants the opportunity to discuss and process various aspects of grief.

Through hands-on activities and discussion, these unique sessions will help grieving children:

- Understand typical responses to grief and loss
- Learn healthy ways to express, navigate, and cope with their feelings and reactions
- Have opportunities to share memories and honor the lives of their loved ones

DATE: Monday, June 16, 2025 through Friday, June 20, 2025

TIME: 9:30-11:30am

LOCATION: PBJ Connections – Galena (2616 S Three B's & K Rd., Galena 43021)

PARTICIPANTS: Children ages 8-14 who are grieving the death of someone in their lives

REGISTRATION INFORMATION: $20 registration fee per household

To register, call (614) 566-1728 or email youthgrief@ohiohealth.com

Registration deadline: Monday, June 9, 2025

Space is limited!

Participants should dress for the weather and close toed shoes are required.

Please note guardians/caregivers are encouraged to remain on-site during these 2-hour sessions.

*The Eagala Model is the global standard for equine-assisted psychotherapy and personal development, which incorporates horses' unique intuition to help clients heal, discover, learn, and grow from the horse-human relationship. Participants work with horses in a non-riding setting that helps them build skills and supports their mental health goals in a group environment.

Child and adolescent grief programming is supported by the generosity of our community, including the OhioHealth Foundation, The Thomas and Ann DiMarco Family Foundation, The Marion Foundation, and The Patricia A. DiNunzio Ovarian Cancer Fund.
